ABSTRACT

A blockchain is a beneficial instrument that has aided in developing and commercializing cryptocurrencies. This market has recently expanded unexpectedly, mainly to address the issues of decentralization and speed. There are now numerous opportunities for implementing blockchain technology, such as data storage, payment facilitation, and money-raising. Cryptocurrencies have also been shown to be an essential solution in everyday life. Specific application areas are expanding and being researched as the cryptocurrency ecosystem improves, but still, there are many which are yet to be explored. Ulaşlı Token platform should provide crypto and Defi fans with a secure, inclusive, innovative, and transparent crypto payment facility option. Ulaşlı Token enables consumers to participate in the cryptocurrency market conveniently and smoothly. Ulaşlı Token is a fully integrated, decentralized, and cost-effective Platform.

This white paper explains how the Ulaşlı Token platform elaborates its uniqueness, its mission, its features, its vision, how it works for the betterment of the technology, everyday shopping, and taking it to newer heights and help the crypto users, commoners internet users so there would be no drawbacks and loopholes for our users.

INTRODUCTION

The Ulaşlı Token is the pioneer cryptocurrency built to adapt to changing rules and market developments for all sized shopping at local markets, and its users have complete control over it. It is a platform that prioritizes the statement "Live Life with Ease", as evidenced by its tagline, we are focused to bring the cryptocurrency into everyday use. By fulfilling our word, we seek to meet the basic lifestyle needs of our supporting community, anyone to turn to for help, and no resources with which to meet their basic human requirements.

The Ulaşlı Token is an ERC-20 standard token that is Ethereum operated with a fixed price and no volatility. However, we picked Ethereum to provide seamless transactions and anonymity to our users and they are our top focus. As a result, our cryptocurrency will be more stable and likely to survive than other cryptographic forms of money that are more centralized and distributed.

MISSION

Our expansion and client base goals are aggressively pursued by empowering newcomers and establishing a strong community commitment to foster trust and resolve any conflicts that may arise between the focal and members of our natural environment. Keeping our token's fixed price as a motivator for our representative holders. Our goal of creating a safe environment across the globe with a specific focus on developed countries with highly volatile fiat currency for our consumers must be met. We have no qualms about reaching an agreement on changes to our understanding that would benefit our community, particularly commoners who are in desperate need of assistance where a daily wagger can not make the ends meet.

We don't want the market to be manipulated in any way that's why we are operating our ecosystem on Ethereum EVM compatibility. We are always exploring new ways to make a difference in the lives of people because we believe that More Is Possible. We aim to provide a haven, a permanent safe payment option, and supportive assistance to people experiencing difficult payment options in a variety of settings.

OUR SALIENT FEATURES

SECURE CRYPTO WALLET

You can manage your cryptocurrencies from your computer or phone using Atomic Wallet, one of the most secure cryptocurrency wallets in the world, and it offers the best APY.

ETHEREUM TECHNOLOGY

The largest computer ever built, the Ethereum blockchain produces the reach cryptocurrency. It uses the best protocol, ERC20 technology, which has many advantages including profitable indexes, user-friendly exchanges that will catch their attention, universal transactions, the ability to secure your token wallet with a private key, and many more.

FIXED PRICE

Changes in inflation won't alter the price of the Ulaşli Token, which will always be set by indexing the prices of three different things (the euro, the dollar, and gold). The cryptocurrency Ulaşli is pegged to the standard parity of one US dollar, one euro, and ten milligrams of gold. The Ulaşli cryptocurrency's shortcode is ULST, and its symbol is ( $\mu$ ).

$$1ULST = $1 + \text{€}1 + 10\text{mg gold} = 17.77 + 18.15 + 9.852 = 45.772 / 3 = 15.25 \text{ TL}$$

ACROSS THE GLOBE TARGETED

The Ulaşli cryptocurrency was initially developed for usage in the town of Ulaşli, but it is now intended to be utilized for large-scale investments, particularly in emerging nations with highly volatile fiat currencies.
